EXTRA

This is just a short note to announce a PARTY for the Classes of 1965, 1966, and 1967, following the Dartmouth-Columbia game in New York, on November 11, 1967.

The PARTY is sponsored by the newly reorganized Dartmouth Club of Columbia, headed by '66 Class Chairman ROG KLINE. It will be held in the "Crown Room" in the basement of John Jay Hall, Columbia's graduate dormitory, located between Broadway and Amsterdam Avenues on the north side of 114th Street. The festivities, including live band, set-ups, pretzels and chips, waiters, etc., are scheduled to begin at 8:30 p.m., Saturday, November 11, following the Big Green's victory over the Columbia Baby Blues.

There will be an admission charge of $3.00 per couple, $2.00 stag, to defray the cost of the band and other goodies. Beer will be provided at nominal cost. Alumni, especially members of the Class of '66, undergraduates, and their dates and/or wives are welcome. Non-Dartmouth friends are welcome if accompanied by a Big Greener.

If you don't have a car, the best means of getting to Columbia is the West Side IRT Subway (a local train) to 116th Street and Broadway. If you have further questions, contact Rog Kline at 195 Claremont Ave., New York City (phone: 212 - 864-5169).

This is an excellent opportunity for '66ers who plan to be in the New York area over the weekend to get together, and the Class Executive Committee hopes many of you will attend -- to celebrate another Big Green Ivy title.

P.S. Due to the need to get this off in time to reach you before November 11, I am deferring the usual Newsletter news; but a new issue will be in your mailboxes shortly. Thanks for all the cards and letters (and comments on the co-education fund concept). If you haven't sent in your card, I hope to hear from you soon.
